Merry Christmas and Welcome to Spring Meadows!

It's a most wonderful time of the year. If you are a guest here today, you are a part of the wonder of this week. Thanks for coming! And to all our regulars around here, thanks for making this place the most amazing place I know. Several years back, Dale wrote these words that still ring true today: "It is you, THE PEOPLE, who living for the Lord, working through the Lord, and loving like the Lord make it special! Thanks. Let's be infectious in our love for each other and for those who come our way and for all we encounter....FOR CHRIST. People who visit a church are already interested and every word spoken to them and every act done toward each other and toward them makes an impression. I challenge you, never let anyone leave here without knowing we love them and want to help them go to heaven!"

I pray that on this Christmas Eve that Christ will be brought to life again in your heart. May each of come to know the lengths to which God's love was willing to go that we might be saved. The gift of Salvation is still a gift that must be received and embraced. Let us help you experience the joy of God's love.

Chuck
