New Arrival!

Welcome to worship! It has been a wonderful week (even as hot as it has been). Today may be your first time to be with us here at Spring Meadows and if that is the case, I want to say thank you so much for coming. My prayer is that God will use today to remind you how much HE loves you and that no matter what you've been through, His love for you is still there..... and with HIM, better days are ahead.

Hopefully, all of us have spent time this week reflecting on the amazing blessing of freedom. As the fireworks exploded this week, I was reminded of a dear friend of mine who served in Afghanistan who still is unable to hear the sounds that are celebratory for so many because of the horrors which he experienced in that great fight for freedom. In many ways my mind goes back to the spiritual freedom that we find IN CHRIST. I think about the sights and the sounds that he endured at the cross and the entire night before. I think about his deliberate willingness to lay down his life so that we may have the gift of forgiveness (FREEDOM from my past). I also think about the importance of our continually being told the story of how our freedom cost the life of God's Son - how He took on MY BATTLE with sin and shame and came to be my liberator.

Today may we celebrate the FREEDOM that we share in this place and may we never forget how it was purchased.

1 Corinthians 6:20 (ESV) for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. Acts 20:28 tells us that Jesus purchased the church with His own blood.

There is so much for us to consider as we worship our God together today. Thank you again for being here. - Chuck
