Good Morning Spring Meadows! RAIN or SHINE - What a beautiful day the Lord has made! After a weekend of rain, we long for the sun to emerge, and to shine brightly upon us. As we gather here today, let us rejoice in the warmth of God's presence, His people and His hope that fills our hearts. May we continue to remember so many that have been affected by this recent storm.

Two millennia ago, on a Sunday morning just like this one, the Son of God burst forth from the tomb, bringing with Him his ultimate proof of deity and the promise of eternal life. His resurrection was a beacon of hope, dispelling the darkness of despair and reminding us of God's unwavering love and HIS ETERNAL REIGN.

Today, we celebrate another resurrection, the resurrection of our brother, Jose De La Cruz, who was baptized into Christ on Wednesday. Jose, welcome to God’s family! We are overjoyed to share this journey with you. We will certainly be praying for you as you are away and serving.

We also want to extend a special thank you to Sam Noah-Wilson for his role in bringing Jose to Christ. Sam, your example of discipleship is a true inspiration to us all. You have lived out the words of Jesus, "You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden."

After our worship, let us remember to stay for a few moments following services for our annual Church meeting. Your participation is vital as we discuss our future opportunities and how we can continue to grow in our service to HIM and to one-another.

Let us approach this day with gratitude, hope, and a renewed commitment to our faith. As we rejoice with Jose today, I want to ask you, ‘who will you bring to Jesus?’ Remember that “everybody is somebody in Christ’s Body!” You can touch eternity with God’s help. One of our dear SMA team, Lisa, shared this phrase with me this week and I love it and will close with it:

“Let’s Make Heaven Crowded”
