Welcome to worship this morning. I pray that you have been blessed this week, and I pray that today will be a time that draws you closer to our God and King. One of my favorite parts of this season of the year is the gift of song. I love to sing the songs that remind us of the amazing thing that God did in coming into our world. Incarnation - that God became flesh and dwelt among us in order to provide THE WAY for us to be His children and one day to dwell with Him throughout all eternity.

JOY to the World - Did you know that "Joy to the World" was not written as a Christmas song? It wasn't even written to be a song. Isaac Watts was one of the great hymn writers. In 1719, Watts published a book of poems in which each poem was based on a psalm. But rather than just translate the original Old Testament texts, he adjusted them to refer more explicitly to the work of Jesus as it had been revealed in the New Testament. Joy to the World was Watts' adaptation of Psalm 98 interpreted as a celebration of Jesus's role as King of both his church and the whole world.

I pray that you and your family find the reason and the relationship that brings JOY to your world. He is here and today we worship this King. Please know that we are here to help you to know Jesus and the joy he brings. Have a great week! - Chuck
