Welcome to Spring Meadows!

This is one of the most exciting times of the year. The beautiful blooms of spring time, the green leaves, and this amazing weather have all been such a wonderful blessing! The new life blooming is also a reminder of the resurrection and new life available in Christ. The celebration of the RESURRECTION of Jesus is something that is at the forefront of the Christianity.

The divinity of Jesus Christ is evidenced through multiple aspects of his life and ministry. His resurrection from the dead stands as the ultimate demonstration of divine power over death itself, an event witnessed by hundreds according to early accounts. Throughout his ministry, Jesus performed numerous miracles—healing the sick, controlling natural elements, and even raising others from death—displaying authority over creation that transcends human capability. The fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies (over 300 of them) in Jesus's birth, life, death, and resurrection further substantiates his divine nature, as these predictions were made hundreds of years before his arrival. These plus many many more point to his identity as more than merely human, but as divine. - Chuck
